

Wyndarra Privacy Statement Easy Read

What is privacy?

Privacy is about your right to have your personal information protected.

Personal information includes your name, your date of birth, where you live and your health information.

Privacy involves the personal information we have about you and what we do with that information

This privacy document will cover:

- What we know about you
- How we use what we know
- How we will keep what we know safe
- What happens if your information is accessed, and you don't want it to be

We collect personal information from you about:

- Your name
- Your date of birth
- Your phone number
- Your health needs
- What supports you need
- How we can help you

How we use personal information

- We use your personal information to make sure we provide the right services and supports to you.
- We also use personal information to contact you with details about our activities.
- We might need to tell other people about you because they give you the supports you need.

We will ask whether you consent to your information being used. Giving consent means saying yes.

What does keeping your information private mean?

Privacy means that we will:

- Only collect information we need to.
- We will not tell people about your personal information unless we have to.
- We will make sure your information is kept safe and is not lost or given to anyone unless we have to.

You can ask about your personal information at any time. You can look at your personal information and make changes if anything is wrong.

How we keep your personal information safe:

- We keep personal records locked in our office
- We keep information on our computers protected with passwords
- We will only tell people your information if the law says they can know
